

MUSIC FOR YOUTH YOUNG PRESENTERS

- Are you aged 16-21 years old?
- Do you have a passion for radio/tv/broadcasting/journalism or presenting?
- Would you like paid experience, presenting at Music for Youth National Festival 2022?

This year we are searching for 3-6 young aspiring presenters, aged 16-21 years, to host our National Festival stages in Birmingham (Symphony Hall, Town Hall and the CBSO Centre) on the 8th and 9th July 2022.

Thousands of young musicians will take to the stage to take part in two days of musical performances, engaging workshops and unique opportunities to meet and speak with music industry representatives. For more information on the full programme, visit mfy.org.uk/get-involved/national-festival-2022.

Music for Youth is committed to having young people at the front and center of every part of our organisation and the ideal candidate will be interested in TV/Radio/Event Broadcasting or presenting as a future career. Music for Youth will provide the young presenters with a professional mentor who will support your development, preparation for the National Festival and will be with you at the event.

The role is the length of 3 full days, as follows:

- 15th June 2hrs session (1st session): Young Presenter Roundtable
- w/c 27th June (2nd session): Mentoring from a professional presenter prior to the event
- 8th and 9th July 2022 – Music for Youth National Festival, Birmingham*

The ideal candidates will need to be available for all the above dates. *Please ensure you can travel to/from the venues as travel will not be arranged by Music for Youth.

To apply please complete the application and monitoring form and email it to programmes@mfy.org.uk by Thursday 9th June 2022, 12noon.

The positions will be paid at the National Living Wage, and in addition, travel expenses will be covered. If you have any questions, feel free to get in touch with winnie@mfy.org.uk

We welcome applications from candidates across the UK, under-represented groups from Asian, Black and other minority ethnic groups and/or disabled and young people who identify with access needs.*
